STATUTORY ENVIRONMENT

Part 4.3 Principal member of Council

42 Mayor or President

(1) The principal member of a municipal council is to have the title Mayor.

(2) However:

(a) in the case of the Darwin City Council, the principal member is to have the title Lord Mayor; and

(b) in the case of the Litchfield Council, the principal member is to have, at the election of the council, the title President or Mayor.

(3) The principal member of a regional council or a shire council is to have, at the election of the council, the title President or Mayor.

43 Role of principal member (and deputy or acting principal member)

(1) The role of the principal member of a council is:

(a) to chair meetings of the council; and

(b) to speak on behalf of the council as the council's principal representative; and

(c) to carry out the civic and ceremonial functions of the principal member.

(2) The role of the deputy principal member of a council is to carry out any of the principal member's functions when the principal member:

(a) delegates the functions to the deputy; or

(b) is absent from official duties because of illness or for some other pressing reason; or

(c) is on leave.

(3) If the principal member is absent from official duties on leave or for some other reason, and there is no deputy principal member or the deputy is not available to act in the principal member's position, the council may, by resolution, appoint some other member of the council to act in the principal member's position for a specified period or until the principal member resumes official duties.

45 Appointment or election of principal member (and deputy)

(1) If appointment is the basis of filling the office of the principal member of a council, the council must, at the first meeting of a council to be held after a general election, appoint one of its members to be the principal member, and another to be deputy principal member, of the council.

(2) If election is the basis of filling the office of the principal member:

(a) the office is to be filled at each general election; and

(b) the council must, at the first meeting of the council to be held after each general election, appoint one of its members to be deputy principal member.
